Preston Wimberly

CREATIVE DIRECTOR / WRITER / ART DIRECTION

San Marcos, Texas · Salt Lake City, Utah
preston.wimberly@gmail.com · work.prestonwimberly.com

I set the creative direction for businesses and carry it through writing, photography, and design. My work spans aviation, musical instruments, music history, and long-form editorial projects.

SELECTED CREATIVE WORK

Wimberly Custom Guitars — Founder / Creative Director · 2026

Led positioning, model naming, writing, art direction, and the website for a small-run guitar workshop. Developed product and workshop decisions with Jim Wimberly; led the brand and public expression. Current offer: a waitlist.

Texas Aviation Partners — Creative Director / Brand Strategy · 2026

Set positioning and created copy, original airport photography, visual design, and implementation for TAP’s launched website. Connected operate, develop, and advise to the operating record and contact. Executed independently with company leadership review and approval.

The Wild Feathers — Independent Editorial Archive · 2025–2026

Researched, wrote, designed, and built the public archive: 410 performance records, 209 archive records, and 125 source records, verified October 5, 2026. Seven flagship stories and six chronological chapters distinguish documented history from attributed memory.

SANDPAPER — Writer / Book Design · 2026

Completed a 50,000-word memoir in three parts and 38 chapters. Designed and typeset the 141-page manuscript in EB Garamond.

BACKGROUND

Texas Monthly — Advertising sales, 2008–2011

The Wild Feathers — Lead guitarist, songwriter, and pedal steel player through the band’s Warner Bros. years; contributed photography and album artwork. Later toured and recorded with Jamestown Revival.

Two decades across studio recording, television, and touring on guitar, pedal steel, and bass. Independent session practice at prestonwimberly.com.

PRACTICE

Brand strategy · Creative direction · Writing and editing · Art direction · Photography · Editorial and website design